SUBJECT: Resolution of Local Support for the East Bay Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) Corridor Enhancement Project

Action Requested

It is recommended that the Board adopt the attached Resolution 09-07 to MTC documenting local support for the CMA sponsored East Bay Bus Rapid Transit Capital Enhancement Project.

Discussion

At its April meeting, the Board authorized CMA staff to lead the development a Corridor Enhancement Project for the Berkeley-Oakland-San Leandro Bus Rapid Transit Corridor in conjunction with the cities of Berkeley, Oakland and San Leandro, Alameda County, AC Transit, the Alameda County Transportation Improvement Authority, MTC and Caltrans. The Board also approved the programming of $600,000 in Transportation Enhancement Activity (TEA) funds for the work. The attached resolution is required by MTC to demonstrate that the CMA is eligible to accept the funds and has the resources to deliver the project.

Staff is in the process of completing the application for the TEA funds. It is anticipated to be submitted to CTC in July for consideration at its September meeting.

Financial Impact

The revenues and costs associated with this project have been incorporated in the CMA's currently approved budget and will be funded through Transportation Enhancement Activity (TEA) fund. No change to the CMA's approved budget is required.
